KING IV™ DISCLOSURE REGISTER

KING IV™ APPLICATION REGISTER

This register provides a detailed account of the implementation of the principles and practices recommended in the King IV Report on Corporate Governance for South Africa, 2016 (King IV™) by AfroCentric Investment Corporation Limited (the Company or AfroCentric) pertaining to the financial year ended 31 December 2025.

AfroCentric acknowledges that the King V Report on Corporate Governance in South Africa (2025) (King V™), released on 31 October 2025, is applicable to entities with financial years commencing on or after 1 January 2026. Accordingly, for the purposes of this Integrated Annual Report (IAR), the Company is evaluated against the King IV™ principles. Nevertheless, proactive measures are being undertaken to facilitate alignment with King V™ by the conclusion of 2026.

Throughout the reporting period, the Company applied King IV™ through consistent implementation of its recommended practices, with recognition that King IV™'s recommended practices represent industry-leading standards.

This document should be read alongside the IAR, taking into account proportionality considerations such as the nature, size, and structure of the Company and its subsidiaries (the Group).

Governance Outcome: Ethical Culture
Ethical leadership Principle 1: The Board should lead ethically and effectively	– Group Code of Conduct – Directors' Code of Conduct – Board charter and committee charters – Code of Ethics Policy – Declaration of Interest Policy – Gifts and Gratuities Policy – Annual performance evaluations of the Board – Delegation of Authority Framework	– The Board of directors of AfroCentric ("the Board") is committed to the principles of effective corporate governance and the application of the highest ethical standards in the conduct of the business of AfroCentric. The Board endorses, cultivates, and exhibits the characteristics of integrity, competence, responsibility, accountability, fairness, and transparency. – The Board acts at all times in accordance with the standards of conduct required of it in terms of the Companies Act 71 of 2008 (as amended) (the "Companies Act") and the JSE Listings Requirements ("JSE LR"), and has a fiduciary duty to act in good faith and in the best interests of AfroCentric. – The Board exercises objective judgement on the affairs of AfroCentric independently from management and has assumed responsibility for setting the direction of AfroCentric through the establishment of strategic objectives and policies. – The Board retains overall accountability and effective control of AfroCentric. In this regard the Board considers and approves AfroCentric's strategy after taking into account financial and non-financial matters, including risks and opportunities. Risks are continuously assessed by the Board through its Audit and Risk Committee. – Board members have a working knowledge of the Group and are kept apprised of key developments in the industries within which the Group operates. The Board has appointed a Social and Ethics Committee to consider, amongst other things, the economic and social environment within which the Group operates. – AfroCentric has processes in place for the disclosure of any conflicts of interests. All Board members are required to report any conflicts of interest that may arise in the course of their duties. At the beginning of each meeting of the Board and its committees, all members are required to declare whether any of them have any conflict of interest in respect of a matter on the agenda and should any conflicts be disclosed, they would be proactively managed, as determined by the Board and subject to legal provisions. – Directors are held to account for ethical and effective leadership by way of being subject to the Board charter and a Directors' Code of Conduct. Additionally, performance evaluations of the Board and its members are conducted annually in the manner set out in King IV™. The performance of each Board member is further taken into account by the Nomination Committee when nominating such member for re-election by shareholders at each relevant annual general meeting.	– IAR: 10 to 15, 17 – GR: 2, 3, 12

Organisation values, ethics and culture Principle 2: The Board should govern the ethics of the organisation in a way that supports the establishment of an ethical culture	– Code of Ethics Policy – Group Code of Conduct Policy – Conflict of Interest Policy and register – Gifts and Gratuities Policy	– The Board sets the values to which AfroCentric adheres and takes active steps to ensure that the applicable ethical standards are integrated into its business operations. In this regard, the Social and Ethics Committee has been appointed to monitor the ethical conduct of the Board and AfroCentric's actions as well as provide ongoing oversight of ethical matters within the Group. – The business of AfroCentric is conducted in a responsible and ethical manner, and various codes of conduct are issued to the Group, and to its suppliers which have been approved by the Board, and other key stakeholders where applicable, prior to being published and communicated. – Management is tasked with the operational management of ethics, which includes implementing relevant ethics policies and practices within the Group. To support this, management has established internal mechanisms for employees who seek advice regarding ethical and lawful behaviour as well as for those who wish to report unethical or unlawful conduct. These mechanisms include the Declaration of Interest register and the Gifts and Gratuities register which are digitally operationalised to enable employees to make disclosures. – In FY25, the following initiatives were taken by AfroCentric to ensure that the ethical culture is embedded within the Group: > Ongoing training on ethics and directors' responsibilities was held for management and the Board. > Ethics training will continue to be part of the induction process for new employees and Board members. > An anonymous whistle-blowing line is in place with proper and secure channels to follow. > The Group's values were revised and incorporated into the new Code of Ethics Policy to align with the Refresh strategy and revived ethical posture.	– IAR: 8, 10, 17 – GR: 19, 20, 21
Responsible corporate citizenship Principle 3: The Board should ensure that the organisation is and is seen to be a responsible corporate citizen	– Stakeholder Engagement Framework – Social and Ethics Committee charter – Gifts and Gratuities Policy	– The Social and Ethics Committee is responsible for supporting AfroCentric's commitment to responsible corporate citizenship. The Social and Ethics Committee is responsible for overseeing the Group's implementation of recommended practices outlined in King IV™, particularly those related to responsible corporate citizenship. By providing guidance and oversight, the Social and Ethics Committee ensures that AfroCentric upholds its responsibilities toward its stakeholders and the broader community. – Further information regarding the Social and Ethics Committee's activities, feedback, and adherence to this principle can be found in the Social and Ethics Committee and Governance reports. – AfroCentric is the most transformed health-related business listed in South Africa and holds a level 1 B-BBEE contributor status. AfroCentric continues to monitor key environmental issues to ensure compliance with Regulatory bodies.	– IAR: 1, 16 to 18, 28, 29, 33 to 39 – GR: 21

Strategy, implementation and performance Principle 4: The Board should appreciate that core purpose, risks and opportunities, strategy, business model, performance and sustainable development are inseparable elements of the value-creation process	– Enterprise Risk Management Framework – Capital Management Policy	– The Board is responsible for setting the direction of AfroCentric through the establishment of strategic objectives, implementation of policies, and overall accountability of AfroCentric. – The Board considers and approves AfroCentric's strategy after taking into account financial and non-financial matters, risks and opportunities. – The Board recognises that the Group's strategy, risk, performance, and sustainability are inextricably linked. Therefore, in fulfilling the Group's commitment of becoming a leading global, responsible, and diversified healthcare investment company, the Board is responsible for ensuring that the process to identify the business risks as well as key performance indicators affecting the ability of AfroCentric to achieve its strategic purpose and objectives is appropriate. – The Audit and Risk Committee assists the Board with the governance of risk by continuously monitoring risks and the implementation of various mitigating controls. Additionally, the Audit and Risk Committee and the Board review the risk assessment and ranking methodology. – The Board formulates the Group's strategy in line with the organisational vision and values and ensures that all business decisions and judgements are made with reasonable care, skill and diligence. The strategy is then reviewed periodically by the Board to consider existing and new opportunities, related risks, the availability of capital and resources, sustainability, and stakeholder interests. Management is responsible for the implementation of the strategic plan and achievement of the performance targets contained therein.	– IAR: 10, 11, 15, 16, 17, 21, 22, 40 to 45, 52

Reports and disclosure Principle 5: The Board should ensure that reports and disclosures enable stakeholders to make an informed assessment of the performance of the organisation and its ability to create value in a sustainable manner	– IAR – FY2025 SENS announcements – AFS	– The Board, duly assisted by the relevant committees, assumes responsibility for AfroCentric's reporting and approves all external reports of AfroCentric in an endeavour to ensure that these meet the legitimate and reasonable needs of material stakeholders and acknowledges its ultimate responsibility for the integrity of the IAR as a whole. – The IAR focuses on issues that the Board and management believe are material to stakeholders and that could significantly affect the Group's ability to create value. The Board has applied its mind to the IAR and in its opinion, the IAR addresses all material issues and presents a fair and balanced view of the Group's integrated performance. – Additionally, AfroCentric issues unaudited interim results and audited consolidated financial statements for the year-end results. The publication of external reports, press releases and releases on the Stock Exchange News Services on AfroCentric's website, enable stakeholders to make informed assessments of AfroCentric's performance in the short, medium, and long term. – The Board, through the Audit and Risk Committee, ensures that there are necessary controls in place to verify the integrity of the IAR and any other disclosures. Reporting frameworks and materiality are approved by the Audit and Risk Committee to ensure compliance with legal requirements with regard to reporting. The Audit and Risk Committee oversees the integrated reporting process and reviews the audited financial statements.	– IAR: 2, 3, 15, AFS

Governance outcome: Performance and value creation
Role of the governing body Principle 6: The Board should serve as the focal point and custodian of corporate governance in the organisation	– Board charter	– The Board of directors adheres to an approved Board Charter and the JSE Listings Requirements, the Companies Act 71 of 2008 (and as amended) and King IV™ recommendations, which enables it to execute its responsibilities in an ethical manner and based on principles of good corporate governance. Initiatives are underway to align the Group's governance practices with King V™. – The Board serves as the focal point and custodian of corporate governance in AfroCentric and is ultimately accountable and responsible for the performance and affairs of AfroCentric. The Board exercises its leadership role by steering AfroCentric and setting its strategic direction, approving policy and plans that give effect to its strategy, overseeing and monitoring implementation and execution by management, and ensuring accountability for AfroCentric's performance by means of, amongst other things, reporting and disclosure. – The Board's role, responsibilities, membership requirements and procedural conduct are documented in a Board charter which is reviewed regularly to guide its effective functioning. The Board is satisfied that it has fulfilled its responsibilities in accordance with the Board charter for the period under review. – Board members are entitled to and have access to all relevant company information and management to assist them in discharging their duties and responsibilities, and in order for them to take informed decisions. The Board meets at least 4 (four) times per annum. – The Board is supported by various Board committees which have delegated responsibility to assist it to fulfil certain specific functions. These Board committees report to the AfroCentric Board at every Board meeting.	– IAR: 10, 11, 17 – GR: 2 to 6, 14

Composition of the governing body Principle 7: The Board should comprise a balance of knowledge and have the skills, experience, diversity, independence and knowledge to effectively discharge its role and responsibilities objectively and effectively	– Board charter – Memorandum of Incorporation – Board Diversity Policy – Director Code of Conduct Policy	Composition – AfroCentric has a unitary Board structure which consisted during the year under review of 6 (six) non-executive directors, 4 (four) independent non-executive directors, and 2 (two) executive directors. – AfroCentric recognises that a diverse board is able to make decisions more effectively by reducing the risk of "groupthink", paying more attention to managing and controlling risks and having a better understanding of the Group's clients. – The Board, with the assistance of the Nominations Committee and in terms of the applicable policies of the Group, approves the processes for ensuring an appropriate composition. The Board considers an appropriate size for itself with reference to the optimal mix of knowledge, skills, experience, diversity, independence, sufficiency in number for its committees, quorum requirements and regulatory requirements. – Executive directors are involved in the day-to-day management of AfroCentric and non-executive directors are appointed for their knowledge, skills and experience and bring an independent view on key issues. – The Board is satisfied that its composition reflects the appropriate mix of knowledge, skills, experience, diversity and independence for it to discharge its governance role and responsibilities objectively and effectively. Nomination, election and appointment of members to the Board – Prior to nominating a candidate for election, the Nomination Committee considers, amongst other things, the collective knowledge, skills and experience required by the Board, the diversity of the Board and whether the candidate meets the appropriate fit and proper criteria. – One-third of the non-executive directors retire at each annual general meeting. – Any new directors appointed by the Board during the year are presented for approval by shareholders at the annual general meeting. Independence and conflicts – The Board annually assesses the independence of the independent non-executive directors concurrently with the declaration of interest process. The Board has ascertained that all independent non-executive directors satisfy the criteria for independence. Chairman of the Board – The chairman, Prof. ATM Mokgokong, is responsible for, amongst other things, leading the Board in the objective and effective discharge of its governance role and responsibilities and for representing the Board to shareholders. The chairman is a non-executive director and is appointed by the Board. Mr JB Fernandes, an independent non-executive director, serves as the lead independent non-executive director of AfroCentric. – The chairman is not a member of the Audit and Risk Committee or Social and Ethics Committee however, she is a member and chairperson of the Nomination Committee. – The roles and responsibilities of the chairman and lead independent director are articulated in the Board charter.	– IAR: 10, 11, 12, 13, 17, Notice of AGM – GR: 4, 5, 6, 13, 14

Committees of the governing body Principle 8: The Board should ensure that its arrangements for delegation within its own structures promote independent judgement and assist with balance of power and the effective discharge of its duties	– Delegation of Authority Framework – Audit and Risk charter – Investment Committee charter – Social and Ethics charter – Nomination Committee charter – Remuneration Committee charter – King IV™ – Board charter	– AfroCentric has a comprehensive Delegation of Authority Framework and Policy, which was revised by the Board in November 2025. The Delegation of Authority assigns certain responsibilities to the Board, Board committees, along with necessary authority to senior executives to further assist the Board in discharging its duties. It further assigns responsibilities and governs subsidiary companies and AfroCentric business units. Various other mechanisms such as frameworks, policies, standards, processes and other governance documents are implemented to drive and support good governance. – The Board has constituted various Board committees to assist it in discharging its duties and allow for a balance of power so that individuals do not dominate decision-making within governance structures. The delegation is recorded in the respective committee's formal charters, subject to legal provisions, which are reviewed annually.	– IAR: 11, 16, 17 – GR: 11 to 14
Performance evaluations Principle 9: The Board should ensure that the evaluation of its own performance and that of its committees, its chair and its individual members, support continued improvement in its performance and effectiveness	– Board charter – Committee charters – King IV™	– An assessment of the performance of the Board and Board committees is conducted regularly, either internally or through the use of external consultants, every second year. During the period under review, the Board evaluated, reflected on and discussed its own performance and that of its committees and their respective chairpersons and all outcomes and areas of improvement were formally noted in a report to the Board. – The performance evaluations were not externally facilitated for the period under review. – The Company Secretary's performance is evaluated to ensure that there is an arm's length relationship between the Board and the Company Secretary in that the objectivity and independence of the Company Secretary is not unduly influenced. – The Board is satisfied with its performance and noted that the evaluation process is improving the Board's performance and effectiveness.	– IAR: 11 – GR: 3, 14, 17

Delegation to management Principle 10: Ensure that the appointment of, and delegation to, management contributes to role clarity and the effective exercise of authority and responsibilities	– Delegation of Authority Framework – Memorandum of Incorporation – Board charter	CEO appointment and role – The Chief Executive Officer is responsible for leading the implementation and execution of approved strategy, policy and operational planning, and is accountable and reports to the Board. The Chief Executive Officer is furthermore responsible for ensuring that the business affairs of AfroCentric are properly managed. – The roles of Board chairman, Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and the remaining non-executive directors are separated. There is a clear division of responsibilities at Board level, as informed by the Memorandum of Incorporation of AfroCentric, together with AfroCentric's Board charter, in order to ensure that no one director has unfettered powers in decision-making. Delegation – The Board has delegated certain of its powers to its committees and other powers have been delegated to the Group's executive and other management. The Board charter distinguishes between those matters that are reserved for decision by the Board and those that may be delegated to management. The various committees' charters set out the delegation by the Board of its powers to such committees. Delegation by the Board of its powers does not absolve the Board of its duties and responsibilities. – The Board is satisfied that the Delegation of Authority Framework within AfroCentric contributes to role clarity and the effective exercise of governance, authority and responsibilities.	– IAR: 10, 14, 15 – GR: 6 to 9

Governance outcome: Adequate and effective control – governance functional areas
Risk and opportunity governance Principle 11: The Board should govern risk in a way that supports the organisation in setting and achieving its strategic objectives	– Risk Policy – Enterprise Risk Management Framework	– AfroCentric's risk management is overseen by the Board and its committees and managed by management governance structures. These structures are chaired by senior management team members and are accountable to Board committees. – AfroCentric's ERM framework is aligned with King IV™ principles, the committee of Sponsoring Organisations of the Treadway Commission's (COSO's) ERM framework, and the International Organization for Standardization (ISO) 31000:2018 risk management framework. The ERM framework provides a structured and systematic enterprise-wide approach to risks within the Group. – The responsibility for risk governance is delegated to the Audit and Risk Committee; however, the Board is the ultimate custodian of risk governance. Risk management assists AfroCentric in achieving its objectives by establishing a formal, structured approach of identifying, prioritising and managing risks with the aim of supporting both the short-term and long-term sustainability of AfroCentric. – Risk management is recognised as an integral part of responsible management, and AfroCentric therefore adopts a comprehensive approach to the management of risk. Management ensures that the Group has in place an effective on-going risk assessment process consisting of risk identification, prioritisation and evaluation. Risks are prioritised in terms of their impact and likelihood. The Chief Risk Officer is tasked with the responsibility of assisting with the management and facilitation of the risk management process of AfroCentric. – The adoption of the three lines of defence model of risk management clearly defines the roles and responsibilities to identify, evaluate and manage opportunities, threats and uncertainties. – The Board sets the approach for risk governance, including opportunities and risks when developing strategy and the potential positive and negative effects of risks on the achievement of its objectives. – The Board, assisted by the Internal Auditor function and the Audit and Risk Committee, treats risk as an integral part of decision making and adherence to its duties. It approves the governance of risk policy and evaluates and agrees to the risks it is prepared to take (i.e. risk appetite and risk tolerance levels). – The Board receives periodic, independent assurance on the effectiveness of risk management from the Risk and Internal Audit departments.	– IAR: 3, 16, 17, 40 to 45

Remuneration governance Principle 14: The Board should ensure that the organisation remunerates fairly, responsibly and transparently so as to promote the achievement of strategic objectives in the short, medium and long term	– Remuneration Policy – Remuneration implementation Report – Remuneration Committee charter – Nominations Committee charter	– The Board recognises its responsibility to ensure that AfroCentric remunerates fairly, responsibly and transparently so as to promote the achievement of strategic objectives and positive outcomes in the short, medium and long-term. The remuneration policy and remuneration implementation report, which are voted on annually by AfroCentric ordinary shareholders through separate non-binding votes, are contained in AfroCentric's IAR. – The Board is assisted by the Remuneration and Nominations committees to oversee the governance of all remuneration matters and ensure that the remuneration policies and practices are aligned with the objectives of value creation, fairness and competitiveness in a sustainable manner. The Remuneration Committee also reviews and approves the remuneration of executive directors and senior management which is disclosed in the IAR. Remuneration policy – The Board, with the assistance of the Remuneration Committee, sets the direction and approach for remuneration for AfroCentric and approves the remuneration policy and oversees the implementation of the policy to ensure the achievement of the policy's objectives. – The remuneration policy sets out all elements of remuneration and is designed to attract and retain human capital, promote the achievement of strategic objectives, positive outcomes, an ethical culture and responsible corporate citizenship. – The remuneration policy endorses remuneration that is fair and responsible and uses appropriate performance measures for employees and that of executive management. – The remuneration policy records the measures to be taken if the remuneration policy and/or implementation report are voted against in a non-binding advisory vote by 25% or more of the voting rights exercised on each of these resolutions at every annual general meeting. – The Remuneration Committee is satisfied with its independence and objectivity, and that the remuneration policy achieves its objectives. Voting on remuneration – AfroCentric includes a special resolution in the notice of the Annual General Meeting each year for the approval of remuneration for non-executive directors. – AfroCentric tables the remuneration policy and implementation report at the annual general meeting each year for a non-binding advisory vote. Where 25% or more shareholders vote against the policy and/or the implementation report, shareholders would be engaged and feedback on the engagements provided to shareholders is reported in the subsequent IAR.	– Reporting Suite at https://www.afrocentric.za.com/investor-centre/

Assurance Principle 15: The Board should ensure that assurance services and functions enable an effective control environment, and that these support the integrity of information for internal decision-making and of the organisation's external reports	– Audit and Risk Committee charter – Internal Audit Charter	– The Board is responsible for AfroCentric's internal control systems, reviewing their effectiveness and ensuring that appropriate systems for internal controls are maintained. The Board has set the direction of the arrangements for assurance services and functions and has delegated to the Audit and Risk Committee the responsibility for providing independent oversight of, amongst other things, the effectiveness of AfroCentric's assurance functions and services. – The Board assesses the output of the combined assurance function, forms its own opinion on the integrity of the information, and reports on the effectiveness of the control environment. The Board is satisfied with the effectiveness of the combined assurance approach as a basis for making its statements on the integrity of external reports. The year under review has seen the continued entrenchment of the risk assessment process which is reviewed by internal audit and forms part of the combined assurance framework. – The Audit and Risk Committee annually reviews the expertise, resources and experience of AfroCentric's finance function and Chief Finance Officer. This role is also assessed through the Board and committee evaluations process. – The Audit and Risk Committee oversees the efficiency and effectiveness of AfroCentric's financial and non-financial controls. – The Chief Audit Executive and Internal Audit function is independent of management. The Audit and Risk Committee approves the appointment, contract and remuneration of the Chief Audit Executive and ensures that she is suitably capable. The Chief Audit Executive has access to the Audit and Risk Committee chairman and is not a member of the executive. The Chief Audit Executive reports functionally to the chairman of the Audit and Risk Committee. – The Audit and Risk Committee monitors that Internal Audit follows a risk-based plan, reviews the risk profile regularly and adapts the plan accordingly. It ensures that Internal Audit makes an annual statement on the effectiveness of the governance, risk management and control processes and confirms annually with the Chief Audit Executive that the Internal Audit function conforms to a recognised industry code of ethics.	– IAR: 3, 4, 10, 17, 40
