

SUPPORT PERSON BRIEFING SHEET

Matthee v AfroCentric — Round Table Meeting | STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL

FOR INTERNAL USE ONLY — DO NOT SHARE OR TALK IN THE MEETING

YOUR ROLE IN THIS MEETING

- Observe everything — body language, hesitations, side conversations
- Take written notes throughout — times, exact words used, who said what
- Do NOT speak unless directly addressed — your power is in silence and observation
- Pass notes to Wilbur quietly if you notice something important
- Call for a caucus break by touching Wilbur's arm — agreed signal
- Keep Wilbur calm and grounded during breaks — remind him of the floor figure

THE NUMBERS — MEMORISE THESE

Full documented quantum	R7,307,642.72
Target settlement (ideal)	R5,500,000.00
ABSOLUTE FLOOR — DO NOT GO BELOW	R4,676,891.34
Walk-away trigger	Any offer below R4,676,891.34 = leave and resume submissions

NON-FINANCIAL TERMS — ALL REQUIRED

- UI-19 corrected — reason: constructive dismissal — within 5 business days of signing
- Certificate of Service corrected — title: Specialist: Care Manager — within 5 business days
- High Court interdict (Case 2026-086906) lifted simultaneously on signing day
- SANC registration fee (R870 + reinstatement) paid within 5 business days
- Payment in tranches: 40% within 5 days / 35% within 30 days / 25% within 60 days

WATCH FOR THESE TACTICS FROM THEIR SIDE

- Low opening offer — expected, note the figure, call a caucus immediately
- Packaging non-financial terms as financial equivalents — 'we'll correct the UI-19 so that's worth X' — it is not
- Time pressure — 'we need a decision today by 3pm' — ignore it, they want this resolved too
- Sympathy plays — 'we understand your situation' — note it, don't be moved by it
- Splitting the difference — if floor is R4.67M and they offer R2M, splitting is still below floor
- Vague undertakings — 'we'll revert on the details' — nothing verbal, everything written today
- Recess stalling — if they take excessive breaks, they may be waiting you out — hold firm

CAUCUS BREAK PROTOCOL

- Touch Wilbur's arm = signal to call a break
- Always step out when an offer is made — never respond to a number in the room
- In the break: Does the offer clear R4,676,891.34? Yes = negotiate detail. No = broken record.
- Keep breaks short and purposeful — 5 to 10 minutes maximum

- Return to the room composed — never show what was discussed

PHRASES WILBUR WILL USE — SUPPORT THESE

- 'That is significantly below what the documentation supports.' — then silence
- 'My floor remains R4,676,891.34. I cannot move below that figure.' — repeat exactly
- 'I want to resolve this today. The alternative is that submissions resume tomorrow morning.'
- 'Any agreement reached today must be signed before anyone leaves this room.'
- 'I will need a caucus break to consider that.' — use freely, never apologise for it

IF THE MEETING BREAKS DOWN

If no agreement is reached: Wilbur states calmly — 'I regret we were unable to reach agreement today. I will be resuming statutory submissions tomorrow morning. Thank you for your time.' Then leave. Do not engage further in the corridor or car park.
