1. NATURE AND SCOPE OF EMPLOYMENT

---

1.1 The Employee is employed in the capacity of Live-In Multi-Function Support Officer and shall report directly to the designated representative of the Employer.

1.2 The Employee's primary duties include but are not limited to:

- Cleaning, sweeping, mopping, dusting, vacuuming and general maintenance of the residence and consultancy premises to professional standards at all times.
- Preparation and cooking of meals for residents and, as directed, for visiting clients of the Consultancy.
- Reception and professional hosting of new and existing clients of EthicHawks Forensic Governance Consultancy, including greeting, directing, and attending to clients' comfort.
- Maintenance and regular updating of a comprehensive inventory list covering all household items, office consumables, equipment and assets at both the residence and the Consultancy premises.
- Ensuring all consumables are replenished timeously and reporting shortages to the Employer in writing.
- Maintaining the highest standards of hygiene, presentation and order throughout the premises.
- Any other reasonable duties consistent with the position as directed by the Employer.

1.3 The Employee acknowledges that the nature of this position requires flexibility, discretion and a professional demeanor at all times, particularly given the consultancy's client-facing forensic governance work.

1.4 The Employee shall not, without prior written consent, engage in any secondary employment, business or activity during the hours of employment or that conflicts with the interests of the Employer.

2. COMMENCEMENT AND PROBATIONARY PERIOD

---

2.1 Employment commences on the date indicated on the signature page of this Contract.

2.2 The first three (3) months of employment shall constitute a probationary period, during which the Employer will evaluate the Employee's performance, conduct and suitability.

2.3 During the probationary period, the Employer may terminate this Contract on one (1) week's written notice if the Employee is found unsuitable. Dismissal for serious misconduct during this period may be immediate, subject to a fair hearing.

2.4 Upon successful completion of the probationary period, the Employee shall be confirmed in permanent employment, subject to the terms of this Contract.

3. HOURS OF WORK

3.1 Ordinary working hours are Monday to Friday, from 08:00 to 17:00, totalling eight (8) ordinary hours per day and forty (40) hours per week.

3.2 The Employee is entitled to a one (1) hour unpaid lunch break daily, and two (2) paid tea breaks of fifteen (15) minutes each — one in the morning and one in the afternoon.

3.3 Weekends: The Employee shall work every first weekend of each fortnight. Every alternate (second) weekend shall be a rest weekend and the Employee shall be off duty for the full Saturday and Sunday.

3.4 Punctuality is a material condition of employment. The Employee is required to report for duty at 08:00 sharp. If the Employee anticipates being late for any reason, she must contact the Employer or designated supervisor no less than thirty (30) minutes before her scheduled start time, and in any event before 08:00. Failure to provide such advance notice shall constitute a disciplinary offence.

3.5 "Late" is defined as arriving at the workplace or failing to be ready for duty by 08:00. A grace period of fifteen (15) minutes applies; arrival after 08:15 without prior notification shall trigger a disciplinary warning in accordance with Clause 18.

3.6 Overtime may be required from time to time and shall only be worked at the Employer's written request. Overtime shall be compensated at one and a half (1.5) times the Employee's ordinary rate of pay, in compliance with the BCEA.

3.7 Public holidays shall be observed in accordance with the Public Holidays Act 36 of 1994. Work performed on a public holiday shall attract double pay for hours worked.

4. REMUNERATION AND BENEFITS

4.1 GROSS MONTHLY SALARY

The Employee shall receive a gross monthly salary of R5,500.00 (Five Thousand Five Hundred Rand). This salary is all-inclusive as detailed below and shall be paid monthly in arrears by electronic funds transfer on or before the last working day of each month.

4.2 SALARY BREAKDOWN AND DEDUCTIONS

| Component                              | Employee (R) | Employer (R) |
|----------------------------------------|--------------|--------------|
| Gross Monthly Salary                   | R 5,500.00   | —            |
| UIF Contribution (1% each)             | R 55.00      | R 55.00      |
| Medical Aid — 50% / 50% split          | Employee 50% | Employer 50% |
| Fixed Savings Contribution             | R 1,000.00   | R 1,100.00   |
| Utilities Levy (Live-In, 25% of gross) | R 1,375.00   | —            |

4.3 UIF (UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE FUND)

Both the Employer and Employee shall each contribute one percent (1%) of the Employee's gross remuneration to the UIF in accordance with the Unemployment Insurance Contributions Act 4 of 2002. The Employee's contribution shall be deducted from her salary and remitted by the Employer together with the Employer's contribution.

4.4 MEDICAL AID BENEFIT

The Employer shall provide access to a medical aid scheme. The total monthly medical aid contribution shall be shared equally — fifty percent (50%) to be contributed by the Employee (deducted from salary) and fifty percent (50%) to be contributed by the Employer. The specific scheme and contribution amounts shall be documented in a Medical Aid Addendum signed by both parties.

4.5 FIXED SAVINGS CONTRIBUTION

As an employee benefit, a fixed savings scheme applies: the Employee shall contribute R1,000.00 per month and the Employer shall contribute R1,100.00 per month toward the Employee's designated savings fund. This benefit shall vest in favour of the Employee subject to a minimum of twelve (12) consecutive months of service. Details and the designated account shall be documented in a Savings Addendum.

4.6 LIVE-IN UTILITIES CONTRIBUTION (ACCOMMODATION LEVY)

As the Employee resides on the Employer's premises as a condition and benefit of this employment, a utilities levy equivalent to twenty-five percent (25%) of the Employee's gross monthly salary, being R1,375.00, shall be deducted monthly to contribute toward accommodation, water, electricity and related utilities. This arrangement is in full compliance with Sectoral Determination 7 and the BCEA. No additional rent or accommodation charge shall be levied beyond this amount. Accommodation is provided as a benefit of employment and shall terminate upon the termination of this Contract for any reason.

4.7 PAYSリップ

The Employer shall provide the Employee with a written payslip each month detailing all earnings, deductions, and net pay, in compliance with section 33 of the BCEA.

5. ANNUAL LEAVE

---

5.1 The Employee is entitled to twenty-two (22) consecutive days of paid annual leave per completed leave cycle (12 months).

5.2 Annual leave accrues progressively and is NOT granted as an advance. In the first year of employment, leave accrues at the rate of 1.2 (one comma two) days for every completed calendar month of service. Full annual leave entitlement of 22 days accrues only once the Employee has completed a full leave cycle of twelve (12) months.

5.3 Leave shall be taken at a time mutually agreed in writing between the Employee and the Employer. The Employer reserves the right to direct when leave may be taken, provided reasonable notice is given.

5.4 The Employee may not take leave in advance of accrual. Any over-utilisation of leave shall entitle the Employer to recover the equivalent value from the Employee's final remuneration upon termination.

5.5 Accrued but unused leave may not be accumulated beyond two (2) consecutive leave cycles without written agreement. The Employer may, at its discretion, require the Employee to take accumulated leave.

5.6 Leave pay shall be calculated on the Employee's basic remuneration and paid on the last working day before the commencement of leave.

6. SICK LEAVE

---

6.1 The Employee is entitled to twenty-eight (28) days of paid sick leave per three (3) year cycle, in accordance with the BCEA. During the first six (6) months of employment, the Employee is entitled to one (1) day of paid sick leave for every twenty-six (26) days worked.

6.2 A valid medical certificate issued by a registered medical practitioner must be submitted to the Employer for any absence exceeding two (2) consecutive days, or on the first day of absence if the Employee is absent on the day before or after a public holiday or on a Monday or Friday. Failure to submit a medical certificate may result in the absence being treated as unpaid or as an unauthorised absence, which constitutes a disciplinary matter.

6.3 The Employee shall notify the Employer of any illness or inability to report for duty as early as possible on the first day of absence, and no later than 07:30.

6.4 Sick leave may not be accumulated or converted to cash payment upon termination of employment.

7. FAMILY RESPONSIBILITY LEAVE

---

7.1 The Employee is entitled to five (5) days of paid family responsibility leave per annual leave cycle, to be used in the following circumstances:

- The death of a spouse, life partner, parent, adoptive parent, grandparent, child, adopted child, grandchild, or sibling.
- The birth of the Employee's child.
- When the Employee's child is ill and requires the Employee's presence.

7.2 Family responsibility leave is not accumulative and does not carry over to the next leave cycle. Unused leave lapses at the end of the leave cycle.

7.3 The Employee shall provide documentary proof (e.g. death certificate, medical certificate, birth certificate) within five (5) working days of the occurrence.

8. LIVE-IN ACCOMMODATION TERMS AND CONDITIONS

---

8.1 As a condition and integral benefit of this employment, the Employer provides the Employee with accommodation on the premises. Such accommodation is provided solely for the purpose of and in connection with the Employee's employment.

8.2 The accommodation shall be used exclusively by the Employee. No guests, family members, or third parties may stay overnight or reside at the premises without the Employer's prior written consent. Breach of this clause is a serious disciplinary offence.

8.3 The Employee shall maintain the accommodation in a clean, neat and orderly condition at all times. The Employee is responsible for the cleanliness of her private accommodation.

8.4 The Employee shall not cause damage to the accommodation or Employer's property. Any damage caused through negligence or misconduct shall be recoverable from the Employee's remuneration in terms of section 34 of the BCEA, subject to the Employee's written consent or a court order.

8.5 The Employee shall not remove any of the Employer's property from the premises without written authorisation. Unauthorised removal of property constitutes gross misconduct and may result in dismissal.

8.6 The Employer reserves the right to access the premises, including accommodation areas, on reasonable notice for maintenance, inspection or emergency purposes.

8.7 Upon termination of employment for any reason, the Employee shall vacate the accommodation within forty-eight (48) hours of the effective date of termination and surrender all keys, access codes and equipment belonging to the Employer. The Employer reserves the right to seek urgent legal relief should the Employee fail to vacate.

8.8 The provision of accommodation is inseparable from the employment relationship. Accommodation does not constitute a lease agreement under the Rental Housing Act 50 of 1999 and the Employee shall not have any tenant's rights in respect thereof.

8.9 The Employee shall comply with all house rules as communicated by the Employer from time to time, including but not limited to noise levels, visitor protocols, kitchen use after-hours, and security procedures.

9. CONFIDENTIALITY AND NON-DISCLOSURE

---

9.1 The Employee acknowledges that in the course of her employment she will be exposed to confidential and sensitive information pertaining to EthicHawks Forensic Governance Consultancy, its clients, investigations, governance reports, methodologies, financial affairs, and personal matters relating to the Employer and any persons associated with the Employer.

9.2 "Confidential Information" includes, without limitation:

- Client identities, case details, investigative findings, governance reports and recommendations.
- Forensic investigation materials, evidence, methodologies and intellectual property.
- Internal business strategies, financial information, contracts and pricing.
- Personal information of the Employer, household members, staff and clients.
- Any information the Employee becomes aware of by virtue of residing on the premises.

9.3 The Employee undertakes, both during and after employment, to:

- Keep all Confidential Information strictly confidential.
- Not disclose any Confidential Information to any third party, whether verbally, in writing, electronically or by any other means.
- Not use any Confidential Information for personal benefit or the benefit of any third party.
- Report any suspected or actual breach of confidentiality to the Employer immediately.

9.4 This obligation of confidentiality shall survive the termination of this Contract indefinitely and regardless of the reason for termination.

9.5 Breach of this clause shall constitute gross misconduct and may result in immediate dismissal and legal action for damages. The Employer may seek an urgent interdict from a competent court without prior notice where disclosure poses an imminent risk.

9.6 The Employee shall sign any additional non-disclosure agreement (NDA) as required by the Employer from time to time, which shall be incorporated by reference into this Contract.

10. INVENTORY MANAGEMENT AND ASSET RESPONSIBILITY

---

10.1 The Employee shall maintain a comprehensive, accurate and up-to-date inventory of all assets, equipment, household items, office consumables and supplies at both the residence and the Consultancy premises.

10.2 The inventory shall be reviewed and signed off by both the Employee and the Employer (or designated representative) on a monthly basis, or more frequently as required.

10.3 The Employee shall immediately report in writing any missing, damaged or irregularly disposed-of items to the Employer.

10.4 The Employee acknowledges joint custodial responsibility over inventory during her working hours and residence on the premises. Wilful damage, concealment of loss, or falsification of inventory records constitutes gross misconduct.

11. CODE OF CONDUCT AND PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS

---

11.1 The Employee shall at all times conduct herself with professionalism, dignity, respect and integrity — both on and off the premises while representing the Employer.

11.2 The Employee shall dress neatly and appropriately at all times while on duty, in accordance with the dress code communicated by the Employer.

11.3 The Employee shall treat all clients, visitors and colleagues of EthicHawks Forensic Governance Consultancy with courtesy and professionalism. Rude, abusive or dismissive behaviour toward clients or colleagues is a serious disciplinary offence.

11.4 The Employee shall not consume alcohol, illegal substances or any intoxicating substance while on duty or on the premises. Reporting for duty under the influence of alcohol or substances constitutes gross misconduct and is grounds for immediate dismissal.

11.5 The Employee shall not use the Employer's telephone, computers, internet or other equipment for personal use without prior written permission.

11.6 Social media: The Employee is strictly prohibited from publishing, sharing, liking or commenting on any content that references or could be associated with the Employer, clients, or the Employer's premises on any social media or digital platform. Breach of this clause constitutes serious misconduct.

11.7 The Employee shall declare to the Employer any criminal charge, arrest or conviction relating to dishonesty, violence or any matter that may affect her suitability for the position within twenty-four (24) hours of the occurrence.

12. REPORTING OBLIGATIONS AND COMMUNICATION

---

12.1 The Employee shall report directly to the designated representative of the Employer. All communications of a formal nature shall be in writing (including WhatsApp, email or SMS, which shall be regarded as written communication).

12.2 PUNCTUALITY REPORTING: If the Employee will be late or absent for any reason, she must contact the Employer's designated representative no later than thirty (30) minutes before her scheduled start time of 08:00. Failure to report lateness or absence in advance shall constitute a disciplinary offence.

12.3 The Employee shall report any workplace safety hazards, maintenance issues, security concerns or irregularities in the premises to the Employer immediately upon discovery.

12.4 The Employee shall submit weekly verbal or written progress reports as required, covering cleaning schedules, inventory status, client interactions, and any other matters relevant to her duties.

13. PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION (POPIA)

---

13.1 The Employee acknowledges that she may have access to personal information of clients, staff and third parties as defined in the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (POPIA).

13.2 The Employee shall only process personal information to the extent strictly necessary to perform her duties and shall not disclose, share or misuse any personal information.

13.3 Breach of POPIA obligations by the Employee shall constitute serious misconduct and may result in disciplinary action, dismissal and/or civil or criminal liability.

14. HEALTH AND SAFETY

---

14.1 The Employer shall comply with its obligations under the Occupational Health and Safety Act 85 of 1993 (OHSA) and provide a safe working environment.

14.2 The Employee shall:

- Comply with all health and safety rules and procedures communicated by the Employer.
- Use protective equipment as provided and required.
- Report any accident, incident or near-miss to the Employer immediately.
- Not engage in any act or omission that endangers herself, clients, or other occupants of the premises.

14.3 The Employee shall handle all cleaning chemicals, kitchen appliances and equipment with due care and in accordance with manufacturers' instructions and the Employer's guidelines.

15. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

15.1 This Contract may be terminated by either party on written notice as follows:

- During probation: one (1) week's written notice.
- After successful completion of probation (first year): four (4) weeks' written notice.
- After one year of service: four (4) weeks' written notice.

15.2 The Employer may pay the Employee in lieu of notice. Notice shall not be given during a period of annual leave.

15.3 Upon termination, the Employee shall:

- Return all property, keys, access devices, uniforms, equipment and documents belonging to the Employer.
- Vacate accommodation within forty-eight (48) hours.
- Provide a full handover of inventory and outstanding matters.

15.4 The Employee shall not be entitled to the savings benefit described in clause 4.5 upon resignation or termination for misconduct within the first twelve (12) months of service, unless otherwise agreed in writing.

15.5 Termination by the Employer shall be subject to a fair reason (conduct, incapacity or operational requirements) and a fair procedure in terms of the LRA and the BCEA, except in cases of summary dismissal for gross misconduct.

16. SEVERANCE PAY AND NOTICE PAY

16.1 Should the Employee be dismissed due to operational requirements (retrenchment), she shall be entitled to severance pay equivalent to at least one (1) week's remuneration for each completed year of continuous service, calculated on the Employee's basic remuneration.

16.2 Severance pay shall not apply where the Employee unreasonably refuses an offer of alternative employment or is dismissed for misconduct.

17. CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

---

17.1 Upon termination of employment, the Employer shall furnish the Employee with a certificate of service as required by section 42 of the BCEA, stating the Employee's full name, dates of employment, job title, remuneration and reason for termination.

18. PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE FRAMEWORK

EthicHawks Forensic Governance Consultancy subscribes to a fair, consistent and progressive disciplinary framework in compliance with the LRA, the Code of Good Practice: Dismissal (Schedule 8 of the LRA), and applicable case law.

18.1 STEP 1 — VERBAL WARNING

Issued for minor or first-time transgressions. A verbal warning shall be:

- Communicated to the Employee in person by the Employer or supervisor.
- Documented in writing and placed on the Employee's personnel file with the Employee's signature of acknowledgement.
- Valid for a period of three (3) months.
- Examples: Isolated lateness with advance notice, minor housekeeping lapses, failure to update inventory timeously.

18.2 STEP 2 — FIRST WRITTEN WARNING

Issued for repeated minor misconduct, moderate infractions, or where a verbal warning has not produced improvement:

- A disciplinary discussion shall be held and the Employee given an opportunity to state her case before the warning is issued.
- The written warning shall detail the nature of the offence, the expected standard, and the consequence of recurrence.
- Valid for a period of six (6) months.
- Examples: Recurring lateness, failure to report lateness in advance, neglect of duties, minor breach of house rules.

18.3 STEP 3 — FINAL WRITTEN WARNING

Issued where previous warnings have not produced the required improvement, or for more serious misconduct:

- A formal disciplinary hearing shall be convened, at which the Employee may be represented by a fellow employee or trade union representative.
- Valid for twelve (12) months.
- The Employee is formally advised that any further misconduct during this period may result in dismissal.
- Examples: Continued lateness after prior warnings, serious breach of confidentiality not amounting to gross misconduct, unauthorised visitors, persistent neglect of duties.

18.4 STEP 4 — DISMISSAL

Termination of employment following a fair disciplinary process, either as the last step in the progressive process or as a first step for gross misconduct:

- A formal disciplinary hearing shall be held, chaired by a neutral person where possible.
- The Employee shall receive written notice of the charges at least forty-eight (48) hours before the hearing.
- The Employee may be represented as stated above and may call witnesses and present evidence.
- The Employer shall communicate the outcome in writing.
- The Employee may appeal the outcome within five (5) working days.

18.5 GROSS MISCONDUCT — SUMMARY DISMISSAL

The following acts constitute gross misconduct and may result in summary dismissal (dismissal without notice or notice pay) following a fair hearing:

- Theft, fraud, or dishonesty in any form.
- Deliberate damage to property of the Employer or clients.
- Assault, threatening behaviour or intimidation.
- Reporting for duty under the influence of alcohol or illegal substances.
- Serious breach of confidentiality or non-disclosure obligations.

- Sexual harassment or any form of harassment.
- Unauthorised removal of the Employer's property.
- Falsification of inventory records or timesheets.
- Wilful neglect resulting in damage, loss or harm to persons or property.
- Gross insubordination or refusal to carry out reasonable lawful instructions.
- Bringing the Employer or the Consultancy into disrepute.
- Disclosure of confidential client or business information.

18.6 DISCIPLINARY RECORDS

All disciplinary actions shall be documented and kept in the Employee's personnel file. Expired warnings shall not be used as grounds for further disciplinary action but may be considered as part of a pattern in subsequent proceedings.

18.7 RIGHT TO REPRESENTATION

The Employee has the right to be represented at any disciplinary hearing by a fellow employee or trade union representative of her choice. Legal representation shall not be permitted unless both parties agree or the matter involves complex legal issues.

18.8 APPEAL

The Employee may appeal any disciplinary decision in writing within five (5) working days of receipt of the written outcome. The appeal shall be heard by a more senior representative of the Employer or an independent person.

19. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

19.1 The Employee is encouraged to raise any workplace grievance through the following steps:

- Step 1: Raise the grievance informally with the immediate supervisor or Employer verbally.
- Step 2: If unresolved within five (5) working days, submit a written grievance to the Employer.
- Step 3: The Employer shall respond in writing within five (5) working days of receiving the written grievance.
- Step 4: If still unresolved, either party may refer the dispute to the Commission for Conciliation, Mediation and Arbitration (CCMA).

19.2 The Employee shall not be victimised or prejudiced for raising a grievance in good faith.

20. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

20.1 Any dispute arising from this Contract or the employment relationship shall first be subject to internal resolution. Failing resolution, the dispute shall be referred to the CCMA in terms of the LRA, or to the relevant bargaining council if applicable.

20.2 The parties agree that the Labour Court and Labour Appeal Court of South Africa shall have jurisdiction over any matter not capable of resolution through the CCMA.

21. GENERAL PROVISIONS

---

21.1 ENTIRE AGREEMENT: This Contract, together with any addenda signed by both parties, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior oral or written representations, negotiations or agreements.

21.2 VARIATION: No variation, amendment or addition to this Contract shall be valid unless reduced to writing and signed by both parties.

21.3 WAIVER: No failure or delay by either party to enforce any provision of this Contract shall constitute a waiver of that party's rights.

21.4 SEVERABILITY: If any provision of this Contract is found to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall continue in full force.

21.5 GOVERNING LAW: This Contract is governed by the laws of the Republic of South Africa.

21.6 DOMICILIUM: Both parties choose the addresses on page 1 of this Contract as their domicilium citandi et executandi for all notices and legal processes.

21.7 COMPLIANCE: This Contract shall at all times be interpreted and applied to give effect to all applicable South African employment legislation, including but not limited to the BCEA, LRA, EEA, OHSA, POPIA and Sectoral Determination 7.

21.8 DEDUCTIONS: No deductions from the Employee's remuneration shall be made except as required by law, or with the Employee's prior written consent, in terms of section 34 of the BCEA.

22. EMPLOYEE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND DECLARATION

---

The Employee hereby declares that:

- She has read and understood all the terms and conditions of this Contract, or has had same explained to her in a language she understands.
- She enters into this Contract freely and voluntarily, without duress or undue influence.
- All information she has provided to the Employer is accurate and complete.
- She understands her obligations, rights and the consequences of non-compliance.
- She is aware of and agrees to the progressive discipline framework.

- She agrees to abide by all house rules, policies and procedures communicated by the Employer from time to time.
