Subject: RE: Follow-Up on Unpaid Half-Day Leave – 25 September 2025

Good day Wilbur

Yes, perhaps the response was because of the implied message that I have done anything about the unpaid leave matter.

Perhaps it would have been easier or better if the question was posed” if the call was logged and if we have any feedback” instead of implying otherwise. Choosing of words and the tone of the email is also very important.

The negativity coming across is already too much as I do not see many positive words in the email below. I also need to remain positive as a team leader and a person in the function of my daily tasks.

Not sure where the tension was felt today as I have not had a chance to speak to you today. Apologies if you are feeling tense.

This is really unproductive yes, I agree with that. I would rather that you escalate this matter to Mapule if you still unhappy instead of responding back to me via email as I have other more important things to do.

Kind Regards

Mary-Ann Jones

Hi Mary-Ann,

Thank you for your response.

It seems your reply may have been influenced by how the message was received rather than its actual intent. I want to clarify that my follow-up was meant to ensure alignment and progress, not to cause frustration.

I've noticed some tension today, and I'd prefer not to be drawn into any negativity. If something I said was unclear, I'm always open to constructive dialogue, but responding based on emotion rather than seeking clarity isn't helpful, especially in a professional setting.

I've acknowledged your response and will leave it there. I won't be engaging further on this matter, as I believe continuing would be unproductive.

Kind regards,

Sr. Wilbur W. Matthee

Good day Wilbur

I responded in the manner I did because I felt you were implying that I have not actioned the request and not doing my job as I was too busy with all my team leader duties. As suggested you are free to escalate to Mapule.

I also prefer to work in a positive respectful environment and would appreciate if you respect that as well.

Would appreciate if you not respond back on this email again.

Thank You

Hi Mary-Ann,

Thank you for your feedback.

As mentioned in my email, I was simply following up with you – which I believe is a reasonable and responsible approach. I didn't expect a sarcastic or dismissive response, and I'd appreciate keeping our communication respectful and focused on the matter at hand.

If you feel unhappy with my response, you're welcome to escalate it to the next reporting officer. I'd prefer not to be drawn into any negativity and would like to keep things professional.

Kind regards,

Sr. Wilbur W. Matthee

Good day Wilbur

As a team leader I am busy as per below yes but I also have responsibilities towards the whole team as well as our team members.

I logged the call on the 2nd of October 2025 SD1225473 and have not had a response yet therefore it would still reflect under your hierarchy as not actioned.

HR is responsible for actioning of the call. I am not sure what their turn around time is.

Should you find that you are not happy with what I have done thus far please escalate to Mapule.

Kind Regards

Mary-Ann Jones

Dear Mary-Ann,

Following our final discussion with Senior Manager Mapule, I would like to bring to your attention that the unpaid half-day leave for 25 September 2025 still appears on my profile. I understand that you have been busy and are in the process of updating this, but I wanted to kindly follow up on its removal.

Please let me know once the adjustment has been made.

Thank you in advance for your assistance with this matter.
