Good day Wilbur

I am applying and following the Absence Management Policy as discussed and as we shared the screen together today during our meeting.

I do hear you and have tried to assist you in every way possible up to this point since you have returned after being sick.

We have explored reasonable accommodations and I am still waiting on the doctor's report to explore the option of a stationary chair.

I am unable to explore the option below further as you became unwell before you had to leave the offices and were unable to work due to being unwell.

Think you felt unwell from after 13h00 if I am correct.

Please load half day unplanned leave on Oracle as discussed.

Kind Regards

Mary-Ann Jones

Subject: Regarding the Unpaid Leave Policy

Dear Mary-Ann,

Thank you for the follow-up regarding my sick leave on 6 May 2025. I understand the company policy regarding sick leave taken later in the day requiring a half-day unpaid leave.

However, I am writing to respectfully express my concerns about applying for an additional four hours of unpaid leave at this time. As you know, I already have three and a half hours of unpaid leave accrued, which will significantly impact my salary this month. Adding another four hours, especially considering I left the premises at 14:30, shortly after becoming unwell at work as you witnessed, feels like a particularly heavy financial burden.

While I am not disputing the need for leave due to my illness, the current situation presents a challenge for me. Given that HR has indicated that staggering the hours is not an option, and the possibility of working back those two hours also isn't available, accumulating further unpaid leave this month creates a difficult financial situation.

I feel that being penalized with a full half-day of unpaid leave when I was genuinely unwell at work and left shortly after becoming so feels quite harsh.

I would be grateful if we could explore any other potential avenues in this situation. Perhaps there might be an alternative way to account for the time, considering the circumstances of my sudden illness while at work.

Thank you for your understanding and willingness to discuss this further.

Regards,

Sr. Wilbur W. Matthee
