Dear Registrar,

I am writing to formally file the attached documents for an unopposed Default Judgment in respect of Case No: 2026-077546.

Due to technical difficulties currently being experienced with the Labour Court online filing portal regarding these final uploads, I am submitting these specific documents directly via email to ensure they are filed timeously.

Please find attached the following documents for your attention, and for placement on the unopposed motion roll or allocation to a judge in chambers:

Notice of Application for Default Judgment

Applicant's Practice Note

Draft Order

Kindly note: The Applicant's Founding Affidavit (with annexures) and the Proof of Service of the original Statement of Claim have already been successfully uploaded to the online portal and are linked to this case file.

As detailed in the attached Practice Note, service of the initial claim was effected on the Respondents on 13 April 2026. Taking into account the public holiday, the statutory 10-day period for the delivery of a Notice of Intention to Oppose expired at the close of business on 29 April 2026. No opposition has been received, and the matter is accordingly ripe for default judgment today, 30 April 2026.

Kindly acknowledge receipt of this email and the attached filings, and advise on the next steps or case allocation.

Yours faithfully,

Wilbur William Matthee
