Dear Mrs. Barker,

I acknowledge receipt of your correspondence dated 4 June 2026, referenced as "AFR1282 Letter to Matthee 04.06.2026.PDF".

Regarding your proposal to meet, I must decline a physical or direct meeting with your client's legal team, as I do not feel comfortable or safe doing so. Furthermore, I must remain strictly compliant with the existing interim order, which currently restricts my ability to engage in financial or settlement discussions.

However, I am amenable to discussing the matter further on a "without prejudice" basis via email. I believe this format will ensure clarity for all parties involved and prevent any potential confusion regarding the discussions.

Kindly advise if you are prepared to proceed with correspondence via email under these parameters.

Yours faithfully,

Wilbur Matthee
