Dear Sir/Madam,

I write to you today in a state of urgent and severe distress. My previous communications, including my escalation to executive leadership on 4 December 2025 and to the Board Committees, have outlined the relentless discrimination, victimisation, and financial ruin I am enduring. My health has collapsed under the weight of this sustained mistreatment, which the company has repeatedly failed to stop.

Despite the Chief Risk Officer’s acknowledgment, the fact remains: after my executive escalation, the matter was simply sent back to the very department and manager responsible for this harm. This has left me utterly exposed. I am now on work-related stress leave with no income, facing imminent destitution. I cannot afford food, medication, or basic necessities. This is a direct and escalating consequence of the company’s actions and its failure to act.

I am therefore making an urgent, good-faith plea for immediate interim relief to prevent total crisis while the Board conducts its review. I desperately need:

- a. An urgent grant of paid special leave to prevent me from being forced deeper into unpaid leave and financial ruin.
- b.Immediate, permanent removal from the reporting line of Ms Mary-Ann Jones to end the ongoing threat and victimisation.
- c.An emergency ex-gratia hardship payment or some type of salary advance to allow me to meet the most basic costs of living and healthcare without delay.

I am out of options and out of time. Without this immediate intervention, the company’s inaction will directly result in my continued suffering and irreversible harm. My health and livelihood are in immediate danger.

Please, do not let your process be a reason for further delay while I am left with nothing kindly reply in 48 hours

Yours sincerely,

Wilbur Matthee
